Library Foundation of Los Angeles Celebrates 30th Anniversary

(Los Angeles, CA – February 8, 2022) This year, the Library Foundation of Los Angeles (LFLA) honors 30 years of partnership with the Los Angeles Public Library (LAPL) since its founding in February 1992. A product of the Save the Books campaign, the LFLA has spent three decades as a strong advocate for the work of libraries in L.A. communities, presenting dynamic public programs, and fundraising for some of the Los Angeles Public Library’s signature initiatives. The yearlong celebration will include special programming, engaging activities, and special promotions through The Library Store. For more information on the LFLA's 30th anniversary, visit lfla.org/thirty.

For the past 30 years, the Library Foundation of Los Angeles has raised over $150 million for programs and services offered through the LAPL. Funds raised by LFLA have created programs that promoted literacy and helped students to succeed, equipped libraries with updated technology, and supported life-long learning such as adult literacy services.
